

Note from AFA President – Obama Defense Policies and Hatch op-ed

Thursday, January 22, 2009

AFA Members, Congressional staffers, civic leaders, and DOCA members, many pundits have written – both pro and con -- about what President Obama may do with respect to defense policy. It might be instructive to read what he has said he will do. You can find it on the WhiteHouse.gov link: <http://www.whitehouse.gov/agenda/defense/>

Secondly, Senator Hatch recently released an op-ed on the need for more F-22s. You can find the link here: <http://www.defensenews.com/story.php?i=3907659&c=FEA&s=COM>

For your consideration.
