

Note from AFA President – Missing the military

AFA members, as you might guess, I get lots and lots of emails. You send me all manner of information – to include way too many political pieces.

However, occasionally, I come across a piece that makes me stop and think. This one just did.

It appeared in the Charleston Post and Courier, the oldest newspaper in the South. It was written by Ken Burger ... or perhaps I should say Technical Sergeant Ken Burger. Read it and tell me what you think.

A belated Happy Passover and a Happy Easter.

Respectfully,

Mike
