

Note from AFA President -- Air & Space Conference

AFA Members, Congressional Staffers, Civic Leaders, and DOCA members, this week AFA held its annual Air & Space Conference in Washington DC. It was a great event ... and very well attended. We had presentations from a vast array of leaders, both inside and outside of the Air Force. Many attendees got to hear from such luminaries as the Doolittle Raiders and the Tuskegee Airmen.

Three of the presentations were especially notable. The first was by Secretary of Defense, Robert Gates. His speech can be found on our website at: <http://www.afa.org/events/conference/2009/scripts/rgates.pdf>

Following his talk, Secretary Gates took questions from the audience. The questions and his answers can be found at: <http://www.afa.org/events/conference/2009/pdfs/AFA-090916-GatesQA.pdf>

The second notable talk was given by Secretary of the Air Force, Michael Donley. It can be found on our website at: <http://www.afa.org/events/conference/2009/scripts/donley.pdf>

Finally, the Chief of Staff of the Air Force, Gen Norton Schwartz made a presentation that can also be found on our website at: <http://www.afa.org/events/conference/2009/scripts/SCHWARTZ.pdf>

For your consideration,
