

The following 4 (back-to-back) pages contain two reproducible masters to create two different bookmarks that can be used as giveaways at dinners and other chapter functions. Note that there is a different theme on each bookmark. The first is a generic bookmark suggesting membership in AFA and the second is targeted for use at banquets honoring enlisted people. Copy one or both and distribute at your next chapter function.

The Air Force Association salutes the Airmen being honored today.

AFA began the tradition of honoring Outstanding Airmen in 1956.

The Air Force Association will honor the Twelve Outstanding Airmen of the USAF at its National Convention once again this year.

Good Luck to the Airmen at your installation.

The AFA supports the Air Force, its people and its programs.
