Welcome to the Air & Space Forces Association's 2024 National Convention

Fellow Convention Attendees and Delegates,

Welcome to the 2024 AFA National Convention! Thank you for your continuing service to AFA. Please know that you are genuinely appreciated.

If 2024 has taught us anything, it is that the world remains a dangerous place for America and for freedom. Our nation needs strong military forces, and they need us. Without us—without YOU—the needs of our Airmen, our Guardians, and of their Families would be lost in the fray of resource allocation fights on Capitol Hill. Our nation needs YOU to advocate for THEM.

Our Association was founded on the strength of volunteer leaders like you, and working alongside us is an outstanding professional staff equally committed to our mission. AFA could not function without them. So, I ask that as we gather at Convention to work, to renew old acquaintances, keep current ones fresh, please express thanks to our staff members who work so hard on our behalf every day.

I look forward to joining you at our annual National Convention.

Sincerely,

Bernie Skoch
Chair, AFA Board of Directors

National Convention Workshops

Heritage Committee Update

Room: Chesapeake 1

Speaker: Len Vernamonti

Session Description: The Who, What, Why, How and When behind The AFA Heritage Committee efforts to energize the Heritage portion of our mission.

Advocacy Update

Room: Chesapeake F

Speaker: Paul Hendricks

Session Description: In this session you'll review the following: What is Advocacy and why is it important for AFA to Advocate. Status of the FY 25 legislative positions and we'll look ahead for FY 26 and how you can help.

The Chapter Health Initiative: Building Stronger Chapters and Field Leaders

Room: Chesapeake 2

Speaker: Janelle Stafford

Session Description: In this workshop, we will discuss findings and recommendations by a small working group of young Chapter leaders on the following topics:

- What do we want our Chapters to be: Issues and barriers to chapter growth and success
- Membership: Issues and barriers to attracting younger AFA members/leaders
- The relevancy, clarity and application of our three AFA mission pillars.

Understanding and Supporting Space Force Guardians at the Chapter Level

Room: Chesapeake A

Speaker: Todd Freece

Session Description: Learn the organization and focus of the Space Force and its Guardians. With this information, chapter leaders can develop activity and outreach plans to support these members of the Department of the Air Force.

2024 AFA Field and Education Awards

AFA Field Awards Dinner | Saturday, September 14, 2024 | 6:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Donald W. Steele Sr. Memorial Award

(AFA Unit of the Year)

Wright Memorial Chapter, OH

President David Babcock

AFA's Wright Memorial Chapter (AFA WMC) continues to "Aim High" by proudly serving the Air & Space Forces in the Southwest Ohio (Dayton) area. Chapter membership is approximately 2,700 members, but the nucleus is a dynamic 10-member team dedicated to fulfilling AFA's mission and goals.

From an advocacy and educational perspective, AFA WMC hosts monthly professional development and networking luncheons—bringing in senior leaders from Wright-Patterson AFB and the surrounding community to raise awareness, highlight needs, facilitate public support, and inspiring a call-to-action for advocacy across hundreds of professionals. The Chapter also participates in numerous forums, interacting with military-focused organizations across the region and providing stakeholders with the opportunity to develop relationships across military, industry, and elected officials—building a deeper understanding of air and space dominance's critical role in national defense.

Additionally, AFA WMC is passionate about STEM education! It enthusiastically supports grants and special programs to local schools and teachers, as well as presents scholarships to Active-duty members, ROTC cadets, and Junior ROTC students.

While advocacy and education are important, the Chapter does not forget to honor those who served or are currently serving—as well as their families. Throughout the year, it holds ceremonies, events, and outreach programs; to include championing critical needs and convening events at the Dayton VA Medical Center.

AFA WMC's programs consistently translate into tangible results focused on having a positive impact on the Air & Space Forces and the military organizations in the Dayton, OH, region.

AFA is proud to award this year's Donald W Steele Sr. Memorial Unit of the Year to the Wright Memorial Chapter, OH.

Outstanding State Organization

Michigan

President Doug "Odie" Slocum

AFA Michigan is a perfect example of an outstanding state organization. The programming activities, reporting, and membership are unmatched. The true measure of success of this organization is exemplified through the tremendous impact on the communities it serves in advancing AFA's mission.

This state organization has grown and prospered by continuously growing and nurturing its team; educating and engaging with its community; and connecting with elected officials to advocate on behalf of the Air & Space Forces.

AFA is proud to award the AFA Outstanding State Organization to the state of Michigan!

The Inaugural Heritage Award

AFA's Vietnam 50th Committee

Chair Len Vernamonti

AFA will award the first AFA Inaugural Heritage Award. This award was created to recognize exceptionally meritorious volunteer service in the organization with the planning and execution of superior nationally prominent Air & Space Forces heritage events.

This year's award recognizes the sacrifice of Vietnam veterans and their families on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the cessation of combat operations of American forces in Southeast Asia. This year's recipient was propelled by the exceptional drive and leadership of Len Vernamonti.

AFA is proud to award the Heritage Award to AFA's Vietnam 50th Committee.

Member of the Year

Janelle Stafford

Janelle Stafford is a Regional Business Development Manager for Moog Military Aircraft, and has been an active member of AFA since 2014. Starting out as a Community Partner, she has been the Gerrity Chapter Secretary, VP and President, Oklahoma State Treasurer and President and Texoma Region President, before becoming a National Director in 2022.

She currently serves on the AFA Executive Committee, as well as the AIMS Steering Committee; the Advocacy, Nominating and Governance, and Membership Committees; and the F2 Task Force; and is the Co-Lead of the Emerging Leader Program.

Janelle particularly enjoys working on leadership development projects and initiatives, especially with young AFA leaders, and anything that can grow membership and strengthen the Field. Quality of Life issues for our Airmen, Guardians, Guard Members and Reservists, military spouses and family members, and our Veterans are also a major motivation for her AFA work. She sees AFA volunteerism as an investment in America's future workforce and as a support mechanism and a voice for the sacrificial work of the Total Force, as they keep our nation safe and secure.

Janelle lives in Shawnee, Oklahoma, and has two grown children and three grandsons.

2024 AFA Field and Education Awards

2024 National AFA Thompson/Mallett Teacher of the Year

The Air & Space Forces Association named Ty White the 2024 Teacher of the Year. David Tyrel "Ty" White, a high school chemistry teacher at Willcox High School in Willcox, Ariz., guides his students toward their own authentic STEM experiences. As a rural teacher, he believes there are opportunities for students to be engaged in STEM learning experiences wherever they live, and he continuously identifies and provides myriad opportunities to expand student possibilities.

Due to his extraordinary work for students in his rural school and community, as well as students across the country, White was named the 2023 National Rural Teacher of the Year, the 2023 AZ State Teacher of the Year, and the 2023 National 2nd Place AFA Teacher of the Year. Additionally, in 2023, he received an Honorary Doctoral Degree in Humane Letters from Northern Arizona University.

In 2019, White became the Southwestern Space Settlement Design Competition regional coordinator and continues running the qualifying program today in the University of Arizona's research facility in Oracle, Ariz., Biosphere 2—a significant upgrade from the Willcox High School gymnasium where it was previously held.

White was selected as a Borderlands Master Teacher Fellow in 2021, and continues to support and mentor fellow teachers.

"He has continued his leadership role in the Borderlands Rural Teachers Caucus where he works with rural teachers across Arizona to collect data from a variety of educators (including administration and support staff) to identify the most pressing rural challenges. He developed a white paper to share with state legislators and educational leaders based on his research on those challenges. The goal of the initiative is to develop content and training to both support and grow young teachers while creating a stronger support network and resources across the southeastern Arizona region," said Wally Saeger, Arizona AFA president.

"He has worked with the Arizona Science Center, the Arizona STEM Acceleration Project, the Society for Science, and Arizona Game & Fish to raise awareness of local resources and develop PD for isolated rural and small school teachers. Ty co-hosts a podcast with Dr. Melissa Sadorf from the Arizona Rural Schools Association, highlighting some of the amazing things rural teachers do to help their schools flourish," added Saeger.

Congratulations to Ty White, AFA's National Teacher of the Year. Ty is dedicated to fostering his students' ambitions and creating new STEM opportunities for them regardless of where they live. He has not only touched the lives of his students but played an important role in shaping the next generation of leaders in aerospace," said John Shade, Executive Vice President for Business Development and Future Programs at Rolls-Royce Defense. "At Rolls-Royce, we are proud to sponsor AFA's Aerospace Education program and support all the excellent educators recognized across the country in the Teacher of the Year Program."

White's students perform authentic research during the Biosphere experience in his classroom and in extracurricular STEM clubs. He sponsored the Racing the Sun Solar Go-Kart challenge, Rocketry camp, and other initiatives above and beyond his chemistry classroom.

White co-founded the nonprofit, Industry Simulation Education \(InSimEd\), which brings in aerospace engineers to work directly with students at engineering hackathon competitions across North America.

"When asked about my proudest moments as a teacher, there are several that come to mind. Laura D., as a freshman, was not interested in science – it didn't relate to her life. However, when she was a junior, I was able to connect her love for cosmetology to chemistry. By her senior year, she created a successful research project, building and coding an Arduino-powered calorimeter."

White's former student, Laura Dunham, graduated with a chemical engineering degree and now works at the National Renewable Energy Lab.

"What truly left a lasting impression on me was Ty's ability to make lectures not only educational but also captivating. He instilled our learning with a sense of excitement by exploring captivating scientific occurrences, such as the intriguing double-slit experiment. His approach to teaching not only engaged us but also fostered a genuine appreciation for the wonders of science," Dunham said. "I have observed his students involved in his programs today, and they are enthusiastic about sharing their projects with others and readily seek out Ty White for guidance whenever they encounter obstacles. The growth I have seen in WHS due to Ty's significant role as an educator has been inspiring. His commitment to becoming an engaged and knowledgeable individual extends far beyond the classroom, making him a prime example of motivation and dedication."

White is involved in numerous professional organizations as a leader, mentor, and presenter, including:

- Data Science Planning Committee and Teacher Recruitment and Retention Task Force for the Arizona Department of Education
- Co-planner for the first (2024) AFA Teacher Air STEM Camp; partnering with the AFA and Davis-Monthan Air Force Base
- Lead team member in creating Professional Development models for STEM teachers, developing Rural Community of Practice for STEM teachers, working with the launch team to start a STEM Ecosystem in Cochise County, and collaborating with rural teachers to identify and address pressing rural challenges
- Lead team member to collect data, analyze challenges, research solutions, and prepare a white paper of suggestions for state leaders, on behalf of the Arizona Rural Schools Association.

"He possesses a rare blend of passion, creativity, and expertise that has profoundly impacted the educational experiences of his students," said Kevin Davis, Superintendent, Willcox Unified School District #13. "Ty's approach to teaching and integrating aerospace-related STEM topics into his lessons is nothing short of exemplary. He has developed innovative curricula and hands-on learning experiences that not only engage students but also empower them to explore and apply STEM concepts in meaningful ways. Whether delivering lessons virtually, in a hybrid environment, or in person, he consistently strives to inspire curiosity, critical thinking, and a love for learning."

AFA Cochise Chapter 107 President George Castle said White is "one of the most consequential teachers" he's met, noting he regularly collaborates with other teachers, local businesses, and industry leaders to prepare students to join the future workforce.

"Ty can identify with and understand the students' different abilities, likes, and dreams. He helps them understand concepts in science and how they relate to the students' everyday lives by being involved in and consistently improving many of the extracurricular science activities for the students," Castle said. "The students are very motivated to do well and continue their studies due to Mr. White's ability to instill a love of learning science."

AFA Slate of Candidates for 2024-2025 Open Board Positions

Elections by authorized voters for these open Board positions will take place electronically September 1-14, 2024.

No votes will be accepted after September 14, 11:59 p.m. EDT.

The 14-day period for casting and receiving election votes will overlap with AFA's 2024 National Convention but is no longer an official function of the Convention.

Vice Chair of the Board, Education

Joe Abegg | Eastampton, NJ

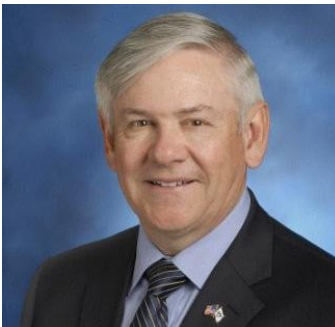

I am the current AFA New Jersey State President, past AFA N.J. State Executive Vice President, an AFA Life Member joining in 1981, and a current member of both the AFA Education Council and the new AFA Recruiting Task Force. I just retired as a United Airlines Captain (free travel for life). I retired after 29 years in the Air Force as both Officer and Enlisted, AF Command Pilot, CAP Command Pilot. I hold a BS in Aerospace Engineering, Master's in Management. I was the Arnold Air Society Squadron Commander, AFROTC Cadet Group Commander, flight test engineer at McDonnell Douglas Aerospace, graduate of SOS, ACSC, and AWC, and an Astronaut (select) for an Ansari X-Prize team. I was awarded the AFA Exceptional Service Medal, the AFA Medal of Merit, the CAP Distinctive Service Medal, four CAP Exceptional Service Medals, six CAP Meritorious Service Awards and three DoD Meritorious Service Medals. Most recently, I led the CAP contributions from 16 CAP Wings at the 50th Anniversary of the Vietnam War; advocated for CAP funding on Capitol Hill for the 10th year; and was the National Activity Director for the sold-out Spaatz Association Awards Gala with the Air Force Band and the CSAF as the keynote speaker.

Why are you running? To give back and to pay forward in the best way that I know possible. I bring 42 years of active AFA service, 51 years in CAP service with executive leadership over CyberPatriot teams, StellarXplorer teams, Flight Academies and Flight Scholarships. Note CAP has 30,000 cadets and 5,800 AEMs. My vast and diverse Aerospace Education background from CAP, to Industry, to AAS, to AFROTC, the airlines, the military, and the Boardroom will allow me to make a difference.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? I bring over 50 years of Aerospace Education background, and executive leadership starting with earning the CAP Billy Mitchell Award in 1974, earning a BS in Aerospace Engineering, a CAP Master Rating in Aerospace Education, earning the CAP Scott Crossfield, the Chuck Yeager and the Carl Spaatz Awards in Aerospace Education, Astronaut (select) for an Ansari X-Prize team. I spent 41 years in the command/Captain seat in multiengine jet aircraft flying to six continents, operating high-level Top Secret missions in five continents, accruing almost 31,000 flying hours, and with 10 years consecutive experience advocating on Capitol Hill for CAP. I have proven senior executive leadership and organizational skills on the state, federal, military, and international level to bring to the Board.

I am currently serving a second term as a member of the Board of Directors of the Spaatz Association, as the President of the Eagles Advisory Group (72 Colonels), a second term as AFA's NJ State President, AFA's NJ State Executive Vice President. I've chaired five CAP Finance Committees, I'm a three-time CAP Squadron Commander, CAP Group Commander, and CAP Wing Commander.

Gary Copsey | Fair Oaks Ranch, TX

I served 30 years in the U.S. Air Force, retiring as a colonel. I was an Instructor Pilot (IP) and Flight Examiner in helicopters at formal school; developed new training programs for USAF IPs; developed night vision goggle training; Squadron Assistant Chief Pilot and IP in C-141s; Chief, SOF and Rescue Branch, HQ MAC Plans and Programs; Chief of Protocol

HQ MAC and USTRANSCOM; Deputy Chief of Staff OPS/PLANS, US Forces Azores; Deputy Director Command and Control and Director, Ops Management, HQ AMC TACC; Chief of Staff, Inter American Defense Board and College (Washington, D.C.); and Commander, AFROTC Det. 930, Marquette University.

While in AFROTC, I was selected to command Ellsworth II Field Training with 325 cadets. Had to establish relationships with base leadership as a tenant organization. Nine years at USAA leading training design and development teams for training at the USAA Bank and for New Employee Orientation. Served as Lead Learning/Performance Consultant where I advised senior leaders at USAA. Direct report to SVP. Selected as HR "Volunteer of the Year" based on work with AFA. Bottom line: I spent both my careers in service to people by helping them succeed. In turn, helping organizations succeed.

Why are you running? With over 10 years on the Field Council and six on the Education Council, I have the experience, skills and background to be a servant leader as VCED. I'm deeply committed to the mission of AFA and STEM education. I've seen it from grass roots chapter level through region as a Region President. My goal, if selected: further the great work that's been done, come up with new ideas from the field: listen to the membership, and take action if feasible. Look for and find solutions to issues.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? My skills range from broad leadership and resource management experience at HQ level and as a commander to being a servant leader by ensuring people had resources and freedom to succeed in their roles. I've been and am on boards, and understand the inner workings. My experience on AFA's Field Council and Education Council; as a CAP cadet and Sq CC; my background in training and development; my experience as an AAS member and now on the Board of Trustees since 2005; my experience as AFA TX Aerospace Education Foundation Chair and member of the Alamo AEF; and serving as a member of the San Antonio Space and Engineering Technologies Academy Board of Advisors place me in a good position to grasp the role and move AFA Education forward, and help envision and execute changes to improve AFA.

I currently serve on the Arnold Air Society and Silver Wings Board of Trustees, 2005 to present. Arnold Air Society/Angel Flight Silver Wings Education Fund (ASEF) Board of Directors from its start until today. Until recently, served as ASEF secretary for several years. I serve as the registered agent in Texas as it is a Texas Based 501(C)(3). SETA in paragraph 3 is advisory role only.

National Secretary

Paul Hendricks | Spicewood, TX

I am an AFA Life Member (49 years). I have extensive management experience while serving as an Air Force officer (20 years) and as a Program Manager for Boeing (21 years). As the Fairview, TX Town Council Mayor Pro Tem (6 years), I maintained community balance. Founded the Veterans Center of North Texas providing social work to Veterans and their families. I was recognized as the Fairview Outstanding Citizen of the Year, the "Hero of the Year", and the Outstanding Volunteer Social Worker of the Year. As the Trinity Presbyterian Church the Clerk of Session (Board Secretary) (10 years), I developed agendas, called and officiated meetings, maintained parliamentary procedures, developed meeting minutes, tracked action items, and produced statistical reports. As the AFA Deputy Chief of Staff, Vietnam 50th Celebration Committee, I scheduled and coordinated meetings, maintained organizational contacts, developed schedules, conducted critical path analyses, performed financial assessments, and developed meeting minutes and tracked action items.

Why are you running? I am a member of the AFA Board. I enjoy collaborating with members of the Board, the AFA Staff, and Field members. I am dedicated to serving the AFA at the highest level to foster growth, prosperity and harmony. I have previously served as the Board Secretary on other boards. I have experienced and observed the value of organized, structured, and well documented meetings. I am ready and eager to function as the AFA Board Secretary.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? I possess analytical and organizational skills backed by practical military, industry, and community experience. I thrive on organizational structure and logical conclusions derived from facts and analyses. I support equal opportunity and encourage balanced, organized, and respectful discussions before decisions are made. In the Board process, it is important to develop comprehensive agendas and maintain direction to reach meeting objectives. Through my experience as the Mayor Pro Tem and Church Board Secretary, I am familiar with parliamentary procedures. Accurate meeting minutes, assigned action items, and responsible tracking are essential to the conduct of a successful meeting.

Jackie Trotter | Warner Robins, GA

I served 11 years on active duty and 22 years as a reservist (primarily ART/AGR tours) in the Air Force as a public affairs officer. When not on active duty I served in public affairs and publications management as a civilian. After my retirement from both the military and civilian positions, I worked for the American Red Cross and Habitat for Humanity. Those jobs gave me extensive experience in working with both non-profit organization volunteers and governing boards.

Why are you running? In my first term on the Board, I became heavily involved in the development of the new Bylaws and Governance Manual. I would like to continue that work, organizing and revising as necessary all the Association publications. I believe the field and our staff deserve a centralized location for all guidance materials. Our board minutes should also be published so our members are more knowledgeable of the Association's leadership actions.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? I became the publications manager for TAC just as the change was made to ACC. That meant managing the consolidation of more than 5,000 publications from TAC, MAC and SAC. The ACC/CC mandated a 50% cut in both publications and pages in one year, which we exceeded. Within months of the conversion, the Air Force changed to the AFI system so I was once again challenged to revamp the entire ACC publications system. A duty for the national secretary is the management of all Association publications. With my ACC experience and work on Association guidance, I know I can organize all the Association publications into a useable and useful library.

Board Matrix Skills: strategic planning, board experience, volunteer work, military service, member experience, governance, innovation, risk and diversity.

I am a volunteer/communications advisor for the board of the Coylumbridge Highland Lodges Club, a volunteer board managing 62 timeshare lodges near Aviemore, Scotland.

Treasurer

Chuck Martin | Fort Mill, SC

I am currently the AFA National Treasurer. I have a BBA from Manhattan College and an MBA from Michigan State University. I am a member of Beta Alpha Psi (National Accounting Fraternity). I am a Certified Association Executive; Certified Internal Auditor; Adjunct

Instructor, USAF Academy; Regis University; University of Maryland (European & Pacific Divisions); Member AFA FINCOM; Chair of the AFA PECC (President's Evaluation and Compensation Committee); Board Officer on MOAA National Board; COO/CFO, American Physical Therapy Association. I served as Treasurer, Foundation for Physical Therapy Research; AFROC Treasurer; Audit Committee, American Academy of Audiology (Public Member). I served as Treasurer or on Finance Committee of various HOAs. I've conducted numerous pro-bono financial/audit reviews of the AFA Steele Chapter; AFCEA, AF4C, and many national medical associations for ASAE. Having Board and staff expertise and governance experience provides a clear understanding of roles and responsibilities. Transparency and recognition of Field & Education roles are vital for an AFA Treasurer and have been demonstrated in my AFA roles/performance.

Why are you running? Upon retirement from the Air Force as a Colonel and MAJCOM comptroller, I moved into the NFP space and continued in my volunteer activities, while accepting a COO/CFO staff position at APTA for 18 years. Received the CAE Certification and was elected/selected for Board service in MOAA, AFA, AFROC, and other roles. I believe my continued performance as AFA Treasurer is vital as we take on the challenges facing us in 2025 and out. I am ready!

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? My skill set includes: solid academic & financial backgrounds; key certifications in the not-for-profit arena; demonstrated appreciation for the successful volunteer/staff relationships; outstanding performance in both staff and executive volunteer positions; teaching finance and management courses at the baccalaureate level; pro bono financial reviews over the years to gain "best practice" policies and audit currency. With a new President-CEO, a leased building with complex GAAP and cash flow issues; an on going program to liquidate the DBP and its $4M liability. Transparency and collegiality are critical as we face challenges in our membership organization. Teamwork is a force multiplier and I bring that environment to the decision processes with Board, Committee, and staff.

I am Third VP for VFW Post 12136, Indian Land, SC; and a member of South Carolina Veterans' Coalition, representing AFA.

National Director, West Geographical Area

Bobi Oates | Las Vegas, NV

I served 23 years in the U.S. Air Force, retiring as Senior Master Sgt. in Aircraft Maintenance. I spent nine years at the Armed Forces Bank, seven years as Exchange branch manager. I have spent 14 years active with AFA in Chapter positions: VP, Treasurer, President, three and a half years as the Southwest Region President, and more than two years as the National Director, West Area. I have worked several years with the Wounded Warrior Trials & Caregiver events at Nellis. I have worked closely with the leadership at both Nellis & Creech AFBs to promote AFA and to support bases. I'm a part of the larger Las Vegas Veterans community, working with them to help our Airmen, Guardians, Families, and Veterans. I'm a member of the Advocacy and Region President subcommittee, member of the Finance committee, and help with the Field Council on whatever is needed.

Why are you running? I want to continue as a National Director for the West Area, to be their voice from the Field on the Board. I work closely with Airmen, Guardians, Families, and Veterans to know their needs and to be their voice as an advocate for them. I want to help the Association grow and continue to do great work for our Airmen, Guardians, Families and Veterans.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? I have experience as a Senior NCO, banking experience, and, yes, I fill the blocks for being female and enlisted. I make monetary donations too. Several years experience in the Field, I can bring that perspective. I care about our Airmen, Guardians, Families and Veterans, I want to continue to do good for them. This is what I was meant to do.

National Director, at Large (two open positions)

Wesley P. Hallman | Washington, D.C.

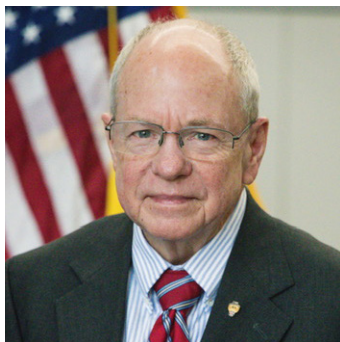

I served 27 years in the U.S. Air Force before retiring as a Colonel. My last assignment was as the Chief Air Force Liaison to the House of Representatives. Prior to Congress, I served in several flying and staff positions including commanding a squadron and a fighter group. I was a White House Fellow, serving as Special Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture, and my staff assignments included AFCENT Forward Chief of Staff and the Joint Staff J5.

I was formerly the Senior Vice President for Strategy & Policy at the National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA) and am now a private sector Executive Vice President and Head of Washington Operations. I have a B.S. from the Air Force Academy and graduate degrees from The Ohio State University, the School of Advanced Air and Space Studies, and the Eisenhower School.

I serve on the Falcon Foundation's Board of Trustees, the parent board of School Without Walls, and as a mentor for the White House Fellows program.

Why are you running? Our Air and Space Forces are our continuing strategic advantage we have in an increasingly dangerous world. Unfortunately, reinvestment in that advantage is not happening at the pace and scale needed to stay ahead. A vibrant and effective AFA is critical to both serving our current Airmen and Guardians but also to advancing and advocating for air and space power.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? I bring to the table experience as an Active-duty Airman, a non-profit board member, an executive with a national security-focused non-profit industry association, and now as a private sector executive. This breadth of experience and perspectives give me an understanding of how to engage and move the resourcing and policy community. It also means I can bring together teams with diverse backgrounds to lead successful efforts on behalf of our association from advocacy to membership services and association growth.

Dan "Ohno" Ohnesorge | Tulsa, OK

I am a retired USAF Colonel. I served as a pilot principally flying fighter type aircraft (F-4, F-16) both in CONUS and several overseas locations including Korea, Germany, Italy, and Turkey. I also served in assignments on the USAF staff, NATO staff, and ACC staff. My final assignment was as Vice Commander and Instructor Pilot at Vance Air Force Base, Okla. After retiring in late 2003, I worked as Deputy Program Manager and then Program Manager for the "Umbrella" contract supporting Vance AFB.

In 2008 I was hired as Director of the Woodring Regional Airport, located approximately 5 miles east of Vance. In this position, I was responsible for several significant improvements to the airport. Any project that aided the military would also benefit our civilian fliers. We built a large joint-use hangar, joint-use parking ramp and extended the primary runway to 8,000 feet so T-38s could land there. In short, my entire adult life has been spent either on active duty or supporting the USAF.

Why are you running? I joined the AFROTC program as a college freshman in 1970. Since then, I have served on active duty, facilitated contract support to Vance AFB, and as Airport Director at Woodring Regional Airport, supported the pilot training mission for Vance AFB. As an AFA Chapter, State and now as Regional President, I've played a supporting role for our Air Force. I'm ready to move to National Director.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board? I have been successful at organizing events/projects and sourcing resources to support them. As chapter president of the AFA Enid Chapter, I challenged the chapter to add 100 Community Partners to our rolls within a year. Our plan included a massive letter mailing campaign followed by chapter members divided into teams for person-to-person meetings. We met our goal.

In another action as co-fundraising chairman, I played an integral part in sourcing over $400,000 to purchase an 80% replica of the Vietnam Wall and erect it at the Woodring Regional Airport.

Doug "Odie" Slocum | Macomb, MI

I have served as the Michigan State AFA president and the Chapter 179 President since January 2021. We have expanded in scope, membership, and impact every year. We're pioneering a single-entity organizational structure to streamline administration and maximize efforts on community engagement. We've also introduced virtual events.

My professional background includes 35 years in uniform retiring in 2019 as a Brigadier General. My experience includes executive leadership and management at local, state, national, and international levels capping my career as the Commander of Selfridge ANGB and the 127th Wing, where I turned the Wing from one of the most stressed/lowest performing organizations in the ANG to the award-winning "best Wing in the ANG" within two years. Prior to Selfridge, I innovated and introduced safety/human factors programs to maintenance and logistics career fields across the USAF as well as suicide prevention and resiliency. I am a career fighter pilot with more than 4,000 hours in F-4, F-16, & A-10 aircraft.

Why are you running? I think I can make a difference. I branded my engagement/leadership style "violent positivity" by focusing on people — equipping and motivating individuals to reach new levels of excellence. It works. I think I can bring that same energy and people-centric focus as a member of the board to positively influence and contribute to field effectiveness as well as nationwide AFA activities. I also believe I'll bring a reserve component perspective and experience that will add value.

What skills will you bring to AFA's Board?

- Communicator: World-renowned public/motivational speaker, published author, educator, not only teaching and mentoring others but also personally delivering >750 keynote-type presentations to hundreds of thousands worldwide
 - Team-builder: Bringing diverse groups together in innovative ways to achieve organizational and personal excellence
 - Steward: Achieving spectacular results in resource-constrained environments while upholding highest ethical standards
 - Innovation: Bringing new solutions to solve tough problems. Proven record of original thinking leading to success
 - Diplomacy: A senior exec approach to ensuring constructive dialog w/amiable disagreement. Conflict resolution skills.
- Other organizations I volunteer with include Selfridge Military Air Museum and the Fisher House of Michigan.

IN MEMORIAM

As of August 5, 2024.

Sunday, September 15, 2024 | 8:15 a.m. - 8:30 a.m.

During the 2024 AFA National Convention, AFA members will gather much as they have every year for the last 76 years to recognize and remember those we have lost in the last year. We appreciate the life, service, and sacrifice of every person we honor today. The service will be conducted during the National Convention Business Session.
