

Stronger Together:

Air Force Association COVID-19 Airman's Assistance Fund (CAAF)

Our Airmen Need You!

As with any battle we fight, we will be most successful when we work together. AFA needs your help to support our Air Force family through the COVID-19 Airman's Assistance Fund (CAAF). With a mission to take care of our nation's essential personnel, our Airmen and Space Professionals of the U.S. Air Force and the U.S. Space Force, our USAF veterans, wounded Airmen, and their families continue to unselfishly serve our country. More than ever, we must support them during these trying times. With your help, AFA's COVID-19 Airman's Assistance Fund will:

- Provide up to $500 in emergency assistance grants to affected Airmen (active duty, DoD civilian, guard, reserve, Air Force veterans, wounded Airmen) and their families for essentials such as groceries, bill pay, and medical needs
- Provide up to $1,000 in grants to Air Force First Sergeants to support their efforts to maintain the morale and welfare of the enlisted members in their squadron

Your donation is inspirational! It shows that even in challenging times, we will band together to take care of our nation's heroes. We need your help to make a difference in the lives of those who need it most as we push through this ongoing pandemic.

Every hour of every day, our Air Force heroes remain vigilant in keeping America safe and secure in the air, from space and throughout the cyber realm. Now more than ever, they need our support. It is our chance to fight for them. The Air Force Association has been supporting our Airmen and their families before the Air Force was its own branch. We will continue to do all we can to take care of our Airmen, Space Force professionals and their families. We are all in this together. Our Air Force, and our nation, will come out on top and we will be stronger together.
